

HARVARD MEDICAL SCHOOL

THE ELEANOR AND MILES SHORE 50TH ANNIVERSARY FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM FOR SCHOLARS IN MEDICINE

ANNOUNCEMENT OF 2008 FELLOWSHIP APPLICATION

The 50th Anniversary Program for Scholars in Medicine was established in 1995 to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the admission of women to Harvard Medical School and to acknowledge the important contributions of women to the School. The program was renamed in 2004 to honor Doctors Eleanor and Miles Shore's efforts on behalf of the Program.

Purpose of Fellowship

The purpose of the Fellowship Program is to enhance the quality and diversity of the Harvard Medical School faculty at all ranks. Stipends are offered to junior faculty at the most vulnerable point in their academic careers, namely, when young physicians and scientists must teach, do research, compete for grants, publish, and practice (if a clinical faculty member) at the same time they may be assuming increased family or other responsibilities. Such support is intended to be an especially important part of Harvard Medical School's efforts to increase the representation of women at the higher ranks in the Faculty of Medicine.

The Fellowship is not intended to provide total support. Instead, it could be used to buy protected time from clinical responsibilities, to pursue academic work such as writing a grant application, preparing a manuscript, completing a research project, or developing a new curriculum. Or, it could pay for additional laboratory assistance at a time when the junior faculty member does not yet have independent funding.
