

Chairperson, Department of Anesthesia and Critical Care

Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center
Professor of Anesthesia
Harvard Medical School

Harvard Medical School and Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center are seeking a Professor and Chairperson of the Department of Anesthesia and Critical Care at Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center. The Chairperson will be responsible for the clinical, research and educational missions of the department, and will play a key leadership role both at the Medical Center and Harvard Medical School. The successful candidate will have a strong record of accomplishment as a leader and mentor within a Department of Anesthesia and Critical Care, and also be nationally recognized as an investigator in basic or translational biomedical research. The successful candidate must have highly effective administrative and managerial skills and be able to work with surgeons, obstetricians and other principal clients of anesthesia services to promote the finest possible patient care while also emphasizing collegiality and cooperation. We seek an outstanding academic physician who is poised to lead one of the nation's premier departments of anesthesia into the future.
